

Many thanks for all the love and prayers over the last weekend. We had a very different, but very moving service in the Cathedral on Saturday afternoon and then On Sunday morning we joined the congregation of Holy Trinity, Llandrindod as Peter celebrated his first Eucharist. It was a lovely occasion, especially as he had asked his Dad to preach.

